

Introduction to Thesis Statement

1. Which of the following is NOT a good way to start your introduction?

- a) With a quote from a famous person.
- b) With your thesis statement.
- c) With a long story related to the essay's topic.

2. Which answer best describes a thesis statement?

- a) It acts as a map for an essay.
- b) A hook to grab a reader's attention.
- c) The final statement made in an essay.

3. The main idea of an essay is found:

- a) In the title.
- b) In the introduction.
- c) In the thesis statement.

4. What is a Thesis Statement?

- a) It is the first sentence at the beginning of each paragraph.
- b) It is a question in response to the writing assignment.
- c) It is a map for the essay.
- d) It is a simple statement of fact.

5. A good thesis statement... (select two options)

- a) usually needs to be 1-2 sentences.
- b) is found at the beginning of each paragraph.
- c) is the first sentence of your conclusion.
- d) is found in the introduction.