Listening Strategy: Questions and Responses

In listening passages, it is important to understand the intention of the speaker. Different question types require different kinds of answers. Although some question types have very similar structures, the kinds of responses they require are quite different. Recognizing different questions types and answers is most important in Parts 2 and 3 of the test.

Some Common Question Types and Responses:

1. Requests

- Ex Would you mind closing the window?
Could you repair the damaged flooring?
Can you help me apply for compensation?

Sorry, it's a little warm in here. (= No)
 Sure, no problem. (= Yes)
 I'll see what I can do. (= Yes or Maybe)

2. Offers

- Ex Can I help you? Yes, take these books, please. (= Yes)
Would you like a cup of coffee? No, thank you. (= No)

3. Invitations

- Ex Would you like to join us for lunch? I'd love to. (= Yes)
Do you feel like watching a courtroom drama? That'd be fun. (= Yes)
How about going to a movie later? Unfortunately, I have other plans. (= No)

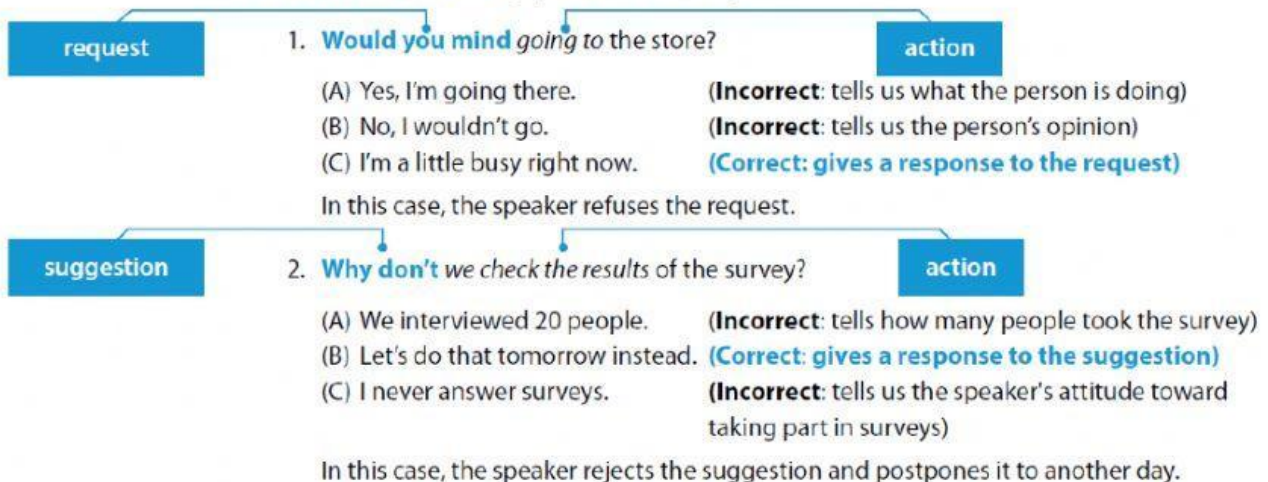

4. Suggestions

- Ex Why don't we finish this tomorrow? That's a good idea.
How about using the other one instead? I'd rather use this one.

Helpful Hints:

Many of these question types are yes/no questions; however, only a few of them use yes/no in their responses. Pay attention to the type of question and think of a logical reply for that type.

- Ex Look at the following questions and responses.
