

Identifying Emotions in Conversations

NAME:

Put a check by the word if you think it is positive.

ambivalent	I am ambivalent about Coke and Pepsi, as I think they taste the same.
annoyed	My wife wasn't angry I was late...just a bit annoyed .
anxious	The audience had 1000 people. Needless to say, I was a little anxious about the speech.
apprehensive	The first time Mariama went skydiving, she was a little apprehensive to jump out of the plane.
concerned	Halimo was concerned about her child's fever.
content	After Selami finished his meal, he looked content .
defensive	Many people get defensive when they are criticized.
determined	Nguyen was determined to make one million dollars.
disappointed	We were disappointed when the picnic was cancelled because of the rain.
discouraged	When I failed the test, my teacher told me not to be too discouraged .
embarrassed	When I failed the test, I felt embarrassed .
enthusiastic	If education in Canada were free, more people may be enthusiastic about studying.
frustrated	When I tried to solve the Rubik's Cube, I got frustrated .
furious	When the dog ate Yusra's homework, she was furious .
grateful	Inas was grateful she didn't have to go out in the cold weather.
grieving	If someone you love dies, taking time for grieving is important.
optimistic	They were optimistic that they would meet their sales targets.
overwhelmed	During the flood, water kept flowing over the banks of the river until Fort McMurray was overwhelmed .
regretful	Svitlana was not regretful about quitting her job because she was making lots of money from her book.
relieved	I lost sight of my young daughter. For a second, I freaked out, but then I saw her and was very relieved .
shocked	I felt a little shocked when I caught COVID. I didn't think it would happen to me, right?
thrilled	The children were thrilled to learn that there was another chocolate cake in the refrigerator.
uneasy	Since she'd had a heart attack, she was uneasy about eating fatty food.
vulnerable	Since she'd had a heart attack, her heart was more vulnerable than it was before.
wary	Once I was bitten by a dog. Now I am wary about dogs.
upset	How upset do you get when somebody is more than 15 minutes late?