The Room in the Tower (pages 32-35)

Choose the correct option.

The narrator asked John if they could move outside the room, _____ he was going to have bad dreams. John agreed but as they _____ to carry it out it _____ to be so heavy that they couldn't. Just then, they noticed that their hands were _____. They thought it was a small cut from the picture but, _____ enough, when they washed their hands they found no cuts at all. Eventually, they _____ to put the picture outside the door of the narrator's room.

After dinner, John and the narrator went out into the garden and saw first a dog and then a cat sit under the tree that could be _____ from the narrator's bedroom, which _____ to be the place where the stone was in the narrator's dream.

At midnight the narrator went to bed and, without having the picture inside his room, he _____ to have a good night's sleep. In the middle of the night he was _____ up by a light coming towards him in the hands of Mrs Stone. She said she had been waiting for him for years. She then _____ him by the neck and bit him. The narrator _____ her face, jumped out of bed and went to the door. John was outside, and the narrator told him what had happened. In _____, John went into the narrator's room and came out white as a sheet, having confirmed the narrator's _____. They left the house the next day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

About a year later, the narrator went back to the village to ask about Julia Stone. A very old woman told him the story of a woman who had _____ in the room in the tower. The villagers tried to bury her in the _____ three times. But every time her ghost was seen with blood on her mouth and a dangerous smile. She killed people and drank their blood. The villagers _____ buried her under the tree in the garden of the house in the tower. It _____ that she visited young men in their dreams and brought them to the house with the tower.

LIVEWORKSHEETS