

7 Complete the sentences with the modals below. Use each modal once. Drag the answers.

mustn't don't have to have to doesn't need to must

1. Sharon eat fish every day – three times a week is enough.
2. Fats be unhealthy for you. Olive oil, for example, is good for you.
3. You have a heavy meal right before you go running. You'll feel bad!
4. I get hungry every three hours, so I eat snacks between my meals.
5. David wear trainers for his sports lessons at school. It's a school rule.

9 Click the correct answer.

A Fast Lady

You ¹ don't have to / mustn't be a big car racing fan to know who Danica Patrick is. She is not only a very successful car racing driver, but also a beautiful model. When Danica was a young child, she ² can / could already drive a go-kart (a small vehicle with four wheels) very fast. She started her career as a racing car driver when she was 16.

Danica only weighs 48 kilos and she ³ can / couldn't race at 360 kilometres an hour! That's hard work and it makes Danica hungry, so she ⁴ shouldn't / needs to eat every three hours. As you ⁵ can / should imagine, she ⁶ has to / doesn't need to eat a lot of food after a race of four or five hours. But Danica ⁷ has to / can't simply eat anything. Her diet ⁸ must / can include a lot of protein and carbohydrates. She ⁹ needs to / doesn't need to eat the right types of food to give her enough energy, not only the right quantities. This is why Danica always take boxes of eggs with her on her travels! What advice ¹⁰ can Danica / does Danica need to give athletes? She believes that you ¹¹ must / shouldn't expect success to just happen. You ¹² have to / don't have to work hard – and she does!

- | | |
|----|-----|
| 1. | 7. |
| 2. | 8. |
| 3. | 9. |
| 4. | 10. |
| 5. | 11. |
| 6. | |