There Wasn't Anything for You

– I'm tired! The shopping mall was very crowded.

– Do you have my stickers?
– There weren't any stickers at the toy store, but I have a poster for you.

– Do you have my pens and my notebooks?
– I wasn't at the stationery, but I have a T-shirt for you.

– Chester, there weren't any balloons in the supermarket. Don't look sad. I have a ball for you!

– Do you have a present for me?
– Oops, there wasn't anything for you. I'm sorry.

– I'm only joking. Of course I have a present for you, Olga. Do you like it?
