Hello my name is Joseph and I am 9 years old, I get up every day at 6 am, I make my bed, I brush my teeth then I take a shower then I dress in my uniform which is blue and white, my school shoes are black after I comb my hair staring at my face in the mirror when I am ready bathed and dressed I prepare my school bag with all the school supplies for a normal school day then at 7 a.m. my mom has my breakfast ready, I like to have delicious waffles for breakfast with cream, strawberries and orange juice, I don't like vegetables so early in the morning, I prefer these for lunch or dinner my favorites are cucumber and lettuce in a delicious salad, at 7:45 am my mom drops me off at school and she goes to work she comes home at 6:00 p.m. and my dad comes home at 1:00 p.m. so at school dismissal time 1:45 p.m., He comes by and picks me up to be home again. In the afternoons I like to do my homework so I can be free and play video games in the company of dad we usually do these 3 times a week like 5:00 pm in the afternoon, then at 6:00 pm my mom arrives and we talk for a while as a family before dinner at 7:00 pm.

My cat is yellow and white he is a Creole cat but very beautiful he is the biggest cat I have ever met, he likes to sleep most of the time his name is Michi and he always likes to go for a walk at 5 pm when the sun is out he is not so strong, he goes out like a dog since he goes out on his leash, he immediately hears and sees the leash automatically he gets ready to walk and is very happy and enthusiastic, while I look for the keys to lock the house he remains in a waiting position in front of the door waiting for it to open and to be able to leave automatically, when he leaves he waits very patiently for the arrival of the elevator which he enters without fear we hear the number 1 and in a few seconds we are on the first floor and walking everywhere with his leash, people are amazed and look twice and say -it's a cat, it's a cat- he just walks out and wags his tail from side to side, he likes to eat green grass and more tender than find is something he does it simply by instinct, he just gets a little scared when large dogs cross him on the road there at that moment he immediately fluffs his tail and makes a brief movement in his jaw showing his teeth as a sign of defense, it is something usual because the Dogs and cats have never gotten along so well.
