Hi Lottie,

Do you want to come and celebrate Diwali with me and my family next week? My mum says I can invite a <sup>1</sup>few friends and, of course, all my cousins will be there – there are lots <sup>2</sup> _____ them, so it should be fun! There's a really big celebration here in Leicester.

You can wear what you want. You don't have to wear <sup>3</sup> _____ special clothes. Not very <sup>4</sup> _____ of my friends wear traditional clothes, which I think is a pity. Bring <sup>5</sup> _____ warm clothes, though, because we always go out into the streets to celebrate and set off fireworks. You should probably bring a <sup>6</sup> _____ money too because there are a <sup>7</sup> _____ of lovely traditional foods you can buy in the streets.

I hope you can come! I always get really excited about Diwali, and there isn't <sup>8</sup> _____ time to wait now – just a few more days!

See you soon, I hope!

Anita
