Fill in each blank with the most suitable word of your own. The first letter of each word has been given.

A long time ago, there was a very beautiful candle. One night, the candle saw how well it was lighting up the room, and it was filled (1) w_____ pride. "Even the sun could not do better!" it said proudly to its owner, "My flame is bright and I (2) l_____ up the whole room!"

The owner wanted to teach the candle a lesson not to be so proud. He left the window open (3) b_____ he went to sleep.

Soon, a strong gust of (4) w_____ started to blow into the room and the flame went out. The candle was left shivering alone in the (5) c_____ and dark room.

When the owner woke up, he told the candle, "Next time you think of comparing yourself to the sun, remember that the sun does not have to be re-lit."
