CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER FOR THE FOLLOWING SENTENCES:

1. Dining etiquette in Japan isn't important. TRUE FALSE
2. Japanese always eat with forks. TRUE FALSE
3. You shouldn't point your chopsticks at someone while eating your meal. TRUE FALSE
4. Poking food with the chopsticks is very rude. TRUE FALSE
5. Passing food to another person with your chopsticks is considered as good manners. TRUE FALSE
6. Japanese love passing the bones of a dead person from chopstick to chopstick when they are at funeral. TRUE FALSE
7. They usually place bowls of corn in front of the family altar. TRUE FALSE
8. When you arrive at a Japanese restaurant they give you a wet towel to wash your face. TRUE FALSE
9. Each customer orders his / her own food because Japanese people never share plates of food in a restaurant. TRUE FALSE

FIND OUT THE WORDS FROM THE VIDEO ACCORDING TO THE FOLLOWING DEFINITIONS:

1. A pair of sticks that are used for eating Asian food.
2. Not polite.
3. A small objet that you used to pick up food and eat with.
4. Opposite to DRY.
5. A person who prepares and cooks food in a restaurant.

LIVEWORKSHEETS