

In the following questions each sentence has four underlined words or phrases in italics. The four underlined parts of the sentence are marked (1),(2),(3), and (4). Identify the one underlined word or phrase that must be changed in order for the sentence to be correct.

1. Even a (1) professional psychologist may have difficulty talking calm (2) and logically about (3) his (4) own problems.
2. The more the relative humidity reading rises, (1) the worst (2) the heat affects (3) us. (4)
3. Despite of (1) many (2) attempts to introduce (3) a universal language, notably Esperanto and Idiom Neutral, the effort has met with very little success (4).
4. John Dewey thought that children will learn (1) better through (2) participating in experiences rather than (3) through listening to the lectures. (4)
5. In England as early as (1) the twelfth (2) century, young (3) boys enjoyed to play (4) football.
6. Some (1) methods to prevent (2) soil erosion are (3) ploughing parallel with the slopes of hills, to plant (4) trees on unproductive land, and rotating crops.
7. Even though the work hasn't been done (1) the day before (2), you will not be punished, but you will be given (3) another chance (4) to do it.
8. In vain he tried (1) to open (2) the door of the house (3). It wouldn't open. (4)
9. When the parents saw the baby watching (1) TV, they couldn't help to smile, (2) because it was a really funny (3) sight (4).
10. Two of the players (1) of the Red Wings has been chosen (2) to take part (3) in (4) All Stars game next month.

