HOW TO CARE FOR A BIRD

- Watch the video about HOW TO CARE FOR A BIRD.
- Video time: 01'06"
- Take a look at the new vocabulary. It may help you to understand the video better.

ACCORDING TO THE VIDEO .... CHOOSE THE BEST OPTION:

1. It is better for birds to live in freedom than to keep them in a cage. TRUE FALSE
2. The cage should be three times the size of the bird. TRUE FALSE
3. It is better for the bird to live in a rectangular cage than a round cage. TRUE FALSE
4. The cage should be placed in a warm area. TRUE FALSE
5. Feed your bird with fresh water and food. TRUE FALSE
6. Birds shouldn't have toys in their cages. TRUE FALSE
7. Some birds live best in pairs or groups. TRUE FALSE
8. Change the paper of the cage once a week. TRUE FALSE

JOIN THE PICTURES WITH THE CORRECT DEFINITION:

BIRD

CAGE

SUNLIGHT

FEED

The light that comes from the sun.

To give food to a person or animal.

An object made of metal in which animals or birds are kept.

An animall with feathers and wings

LIVEWORKSHEETS