

Classifying living things

Name _____ Date _____

1 The main groups of vertebrates are:

- a. primates, birds, crocodiles, amphibians and fish.
- b. mammals, birds, reptiles, amphibians and fish.
- c. cetaceans, songbirds, lizards, amphibians and fish.

2 All living things are classified into five main groups:

- a. animals, plants, algae, mushrooms and bacteria.
- b. vertebrates, plants, algae, fungi and bacteria.
- c. animals, plants, algae, fungi and bacteria.

3 Animals are classified into...

- a. vertebrates and invertebrates.
- b. mammals and invertebrates.
- c. vertebrates and echinoderms.

4 Amphibians and reptiles are...

- a. invertebrates.
- b. vertebrates.
- c. cnidarians.

5 Sponges and molluscs are...

- a. invertebrates.
- b. vertebrates.
- c. fish.

6 Birds, reptiles, amphibians and fish are all...

- a. oviparous.
- b. viviparous.
- c. primates.

7 Echinoderms are...

- a. vertebrates.
- b. terrestrial animals.
- c. marine animals.

8 Fish and baby amphibians breathe through...

- a. lungs.
- b. the skin.
- c. gills.