

LESSON- CONTINUITY & CHANGE-THE PEARL INDUSTRY

SUBJECT- MORAL, SOCIAL & CULTURAL STUDIES

I. Identify the participants involved in pearl diving:

_____ ran the entire pearling operation and generally was either the owner of the boat or managed the process on behalf of the owner. Significantly, he distributed profits of each season to members of the crew.

_____ performed the most difficult work, spending all day diving for oysters.

_____ was in charge of the ropes used to lower divers to the oyster beds and to pull them up when ready to surface.

_____ served divers food and tea, and helped to open oyster shells.

_____ responsible for entertainment during the long months at sea through songs and poetry.

_____ responsible for selling pearls and giving share to each crew member.