I live in a (1) ..... village. My parents often tell me (2) ..... about their life in the past. It's not much like the village I can see nowadays.

Some villagers now live in brick houses instead of earthen ones. Our houses are better equipped (3).....electric fans and TVs. Thanks to the TV, we now know more about (4) ..... outside our village. We don't use oil lamps (5) ..... more . We have electric lights which are much brighter. More villagers are using motorcycles for transport instead of (6) ..... a horse or walking. We - village children - no longer have to walk a long way and cross a stream to get (7) ..... school, which is dangerous in the rainy season. Now there's a new school nearby. We also have more (8)..... from the city. They come to experience our way of life.

Tokyo is a famous city. There are a few good buildings and impressive temples; there are a few parks worth visiting. Everything has to be small in Tokyo: houses, rooms, shops. Long-side streets consist of tiny houses only, and this often creates a toy-like, with small women tip-toeing along in their kimonos.

Tokyo at night is a very different place from Tokyo in daytime. Millions of neon lights are switched and nowhere in the world is more attractive.

A town is not its buildings alone; it is an atmosphere, its pleasure, its sadness, its madness, and above all its people. Tokyo may lack architectural beauty but it has character and excitement; it is alive. I found it a mysterious and lovable city.

2. There is nothing to see in the parks in Tokyo.
3. Many small houses found along long road.
