

MUSIC

- 1 Complete the text about The Police with the words from the box.

album Awards band charts concert drums guitarist hit lyrics musicians release singer single songwriter tour

THE POLICE

a very short history

- 1977 - The ¹ band forms with Sting (Gordon Sumner) as ² guitarist, bass ³ guitarist and lead ⁴ singer, Andy Summers on guitar and Stewart Copeland on ⁵ drums and percussion.
- 1977 - The Police release their first ⁶ single, Fall Out
- 1978 - Their third single Can't Stand Losing You becomes a number one ⁷ hit.
- 1978 - Their first ⁸ album Outlands d'Amour is released.
- 1981 - Every Breath You Take stays at the top of the ⁹ charts for four weeks in the UK and eight weeks in the USA. It is admired for both the music and the ¹⁰ lyrics.
- 1979- The Police ¹¹ release five more albums and 1984 win six Grammy ¹² awards
- 1984 - The Police give their last ¹³ concert in Melbourne, after which all the ¹⁴ musicians follow their solo careers.
- 2007 - The Police come together for a ¹⁵ tour of the world to mark the thirtieth anniversary of the release of the single Roxanne.