

- Vocabulary Listen to the following underlined words and phrases. Then use the context in the examples to match them with their definitions.

| Examples                                                                                     | Definitions                                                          |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. According to the weather report, it's going to be sunny tomorrow. _____     | A to put a piece of writing in a book, magazine, or newspaper |
| 2. The science magazine has agreed to publish our research. _____                     | B extremely important                                         |
| 3. I felt totally lost without my smartphone. _____                            | C a person chosen to act and speak for a group         |
| 4. Rising sea levels is a consequence of global warming. _____                        | D as stated or reported by                                    |
| 5. We can conserve electricity by turning off lights when we aren't using them. _____ | E a negative effect that is caused by something               |
| 6. There is usually a shortage of water during the summer months. _____               | F to try not to waste something                               |
| 7. Computer skills are crucial in today's job market. _____                           | G completely; extremely                                       |
| 8. My mother is a representative on our local town council. _____                     | H a state in which there is not enough of something    |