Master speaker

Being polite

British people are said to be overtly polite: they use "thank you", "you're welcome" and "sorry" profusely. How can you say it differently?

1. Drag the expression to the correct column.

a) Anytime
b) Excuse me
c) I owe you one
d) I really appreciate it
e) My apologies
f) It's very kind of you
g) I owe you big time
h) My bad
i) My pleasure
j) Not at all
k) Pardon me
l) Don't mention it

Thank you	You're welcome	I'm sorry
✍	✍	✍
✍	✍	✍
✍	✍	✍
✍	✍	✍

LIVEWORKSHEETS