TRACK 35

A: In this new series of 'Talk of the Town' we'll be looking at the different restaurants in and around Ogdenville and getting some tips and (1) .....from our resident food critic, Chris Griffin. So Chris, where have you been this week?

B: Well, one restaurant that I really enjoyed is Adam's. It's on the(2) ..... I ordered a steak au poivre and it was perfect.

A: What's that?

B: It's a steak in peppercorns - it's quite a (3) .....dish.

A: So, is it a French restaurant or a steakhouse?

B: Well, the chef is French, but it serves food from all over (4) ..... It has a wide (5).....of dishes. One word of warning though, it gets really busy at weekends, so you should check they have places before you go.

A: Have you got any other recommendations for us this week, Chris?

B: Oh, yes. I can really recommend the Duke on Smith Street. I had lobster and it was really tasty. It also has a few (6) ....., but it's the (7).....that make it famous in the town. The food isn't that low-cost though, so you might want to save going here for a special treat.

A: What about people who are on a budget? Have you got any suggestions for them?

B: Yes, I have. The Tower in Market Street is (8).....where people can get a good meal at a (9)..... I had a pizza, but it isn't a fast food restaurant, it specializes in all different types of food from Italy. I've (10) .....that the lasagne is especially good.

A: Thanks, Chris. You certainly have given us all food for thought.
