VOCABULARY: Complete each sentence by writing the correct word/phrase.

1. Playing video games too much leads to N_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ problems such as tiredness and low energy.
2. P_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ is a sporting event in which people compete in five different sports (running, riding, swimming, shooting, and fencing).
3. Judo and karate are some types of M_ _ _ _ _ _ A_ _ _ that originate from Japan.
4. C_ _ _ _ S_ _ _ _ is the environment in which communication over computer networks occurs.
5. This phone is relatively A_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ at just $ 100.
6. With our product, you get longer B_ _ _ _ _ _ L_ _ _.
7. Texting was a definite H_ _ _ _ _ as the act of looking down would lead your eyes off the road.
8. Phone O_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ can be a serious issue, damaging devices and affecting performance.
9. My phone always suddenly F_ _ _ _ _ _ , especially when I play game.
10. Cell phones have become a common P_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ over the last ten years.
11. The fireworks were a S_ _ _ _ _ that the festival had started.
12. The S_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ demonstrate a change in the amount of people that use mobile phones.
13. The Great Wall of China wasn't built by a single dynasty, but spanned over many E_ _ _ _ _ _.
14. The rice paddies are stretching along the other side of the mountain which creates a P_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ scenery for Ha Giang province.
15. Coming to Ba Na Hills, visitors will have an opportunity to take photos of many W_ _ F_ _ _ _ _ _ such as Bi Rain, David Beckham, Michael Jackson, etc.

GRAMMAR: Identify the error (A, B, C or D) in each sentence and write the correct word/phrase.

Answer sample: A - lives

LIVEWORKSHEETS

1. Over (A) the next five years, the figure fell considerable (B) for indoor games, but rose (C) dramatically for outdoor games and reached a peak (D) at 75 students.
2. The USA (A) was a little most successful (B) than (C) Great Britain in (D) rowing.
3. The proportion (A) of teenagers playing (B) online games witnessed a fluctuate (C) between 2010 and (D) 2015.
4. Football (A) was significantly popularer (B) than gymnastics (C) and swimming (D).
5. The total percentage of (A) video games players witnessed (B) a striked (C) decline from 2013 to (D) 2020.
6. The (A) second more (B) played game by (C) American teenagers was (D) Pokémon Go.
7. There was (A) a consistently (B) increase in the number of (C) American teenagers playing (D) outdoor games.
8. In 2001, profit (A) from sales of games dropped (B) slightly to 3.8 billion dollars and it (C) remained stablely (D) at this level in the following year.
9. Overall, tourists (A) in these countries (B) increased over time, and the USA and France receive (C) the highest number of foreign travelers (D) during this period.
10. Over 70 million (A) international tourists land (B) in the USA in 1995, which was (C) more than double (D) that of France.
11. The percentage (A) of people visiting (B) the USA also increase (C) significantly over a period of (D) 15 years.
12. Starting with (A) 30% in 1980, then this percentage see (B) a steady decline, reaching (C) a final figure of just under (D) 20% in 2010.
13. Big Ben Tower was clearly (A) the most popular among all tourists (B) to England, whereas (C) the London Eyes had the less (D) number of visitors.
14. Few (A) people visited (B) China in (C) 2013 than (D) in 2014.
15. The tourism (A) industry attracted (B) the fewest (C) money from investors among all 3 sectors (D).

LIVEWORKSHEETS