

A. group discussion:

1. It may not have a specific goal
 2. Leads to a goal ultimately
 3. It has a time structure
- B. The leadership of a group discussion is usually less directive than that of a meeting.
- C. A group discussion allows participation by all members

1. All members of the group can hear others' ideas and feelings stated openly
2. Not all the members of the group discussion get a chance to speak
3. A few group members can receive and respond to respectful constructive feedback

1. To decide who has the best ideas concerning a topic
2. Provide mutual support for any situation
3. To work with the best arguments forward

WHAT'S THE POINT OF GROUP DISCUSSION?

1. To give everyone involved a voice.
2. To have the opportunity to get to know each other
3. To Allow for a variety of facts to be expressed and discussed

WHY WOULD YOU SPECIFICALLY LEAD A GROUP DISCUSSION? Answer this question in your own words speaking your answer.

"DISCIPLINE IS THE PATH TOWARDS SUCCESS"

Raymond García