Last night, I (be) asleep, when I (hear) a strange noise coming downstairs. I (wake) up immediately and (turn) on the lights. I (can) not see anything. I (put) on my evening gown on, so I could inspect my house. Then, I (go) down the stairs. I noticed the noise was coming from outside and it only got closer the more I (listen) at the door. Then, I gathered some courage and (open) the door. It was a cat! I (see) a small black cat outside my front door. It was meowing loudly. Relieved now. I closed the door, went upstairs, and (take) off my gown. I (get) into my bed, finally able to rest. I turned off my light, and (go) to sleep.
