1. Read the paragraph about yard sales or garage sales in the USA. Then write true (T) or (F) false.

In North America, people often sell old things like furniture, jewelry, or clothing at a garage sale or yard sale. They decide on prices, put the things on tables in their garage or yard, and then they put a sign in front of their house to advertise the sale. People come to look and maybe to buy. Some things at yard sales are antiques and are worth a lot of money.

- a) () People usually buy new products.
- b) () There, people can buy t-shirts and shoes .
- c) () People sell food on yard sales
- d) () People never buy the products advertised.
- e) () The products are very cheap.
