Grammar

A | Choose the correct words to complete the conversation.

Amy Do you want to get together for coffee sometime tomorrow, Janice?

Janice I'd love to, but <sup>1</sup>I'm going / I will to be really busy all day.

Amy Oh, no. What's going on?

Janice Well, Shawn <sup>2</sup>has / having his karate class at 9, so I have to take him there. Then I'm <sup>3</sup>taking / will take Melinda to her piano lesson. And in the afternoon, <sup>4</sup>I'll be / I'm going to helping the kids with some projects for school. Then that night, my parents are <sup>5</sup>be coming / coming over for dinner.

Amy Sounds like a busy day! But just think—twenty years from now, you <sup>6</sup>might / must miss days like these.

Janice Twenty years from now? By that time, the kids <sup>7</sup>are going to / will have finished college, and David and I <sup>8</sup>are / will be living the simple life in a small house near the beach.

Amy Do you really think <sup>9</sup>you'll / you're going move away from here?

Janice Who knows? Anything <sup>10</sup>could / must happen between now and then.

B |  Listen and check your answers. Then practice the conversation with a partner.
