Name:

Fill in the blanks with "but" or "and".

We use 'and' to describe two actions that happened one after the other and similar ideas. If the ideas are opposing or contrasting, we use 'but'.

1. The day is cool _____ it is not that cold.
2. We went to school _____ didn't do much school work.
3. We got up _____ got ready for school.
4. Helen saw Anjela at a party _____ had no chance to talk.
5. Granny wore a pretty dress _____ high-heels in this photograph.
6. The boys plucked the apples _____ gathered them into their baskets.
7. Mom tried to open the old window _____ could not.
8. The basin was filled with water _____ it was too cold.
9. My mother looks young _____ beautiful in this dress.
10. Peters and Jacobs usually go to church together _____ they didn't go this Sunday.
11. He made some toast for breakfast _____ sat down to watch TV.
12. Let's meet tomorrow _____ have some fun.
13. You can borrow my book _____ you have to return it by Saturday.
14. The doctor is very experienced _____ everyone likes him.

LIVEWORKSHEETS