6.1.1 Retelling

Name: _____

Date: _____

Please fill in the blanks as you read the story. This is the paper copy and it is slightly different than the Liveworksheets copy.

characters	conflict	daughter's	Dragon,_Dragon
eldest	force	forgotten	half
humorous	John_Gardener	kingdom	middle
outfox	proud	queen	spell
spell_book	tyrant	useless	youngest

1. The story is called _____.
2. The author is _____.
3. This story takes place in a _____.
4. The main _____ is the king needs to stop the dragon that is causing chaos in his kingdom.
5. The king says that the knights haven't fought the dragon because he's not a _____ and can't _____ them.
6. The wizard hasn't used a magical spell because he has _____ the ones he used to know and has lost his _____.
7. The wizard tries out a _____ that turns the _____ into a rosebush.
8. The reaction of the _____ suggests that the story is meant to be _____.
9. The king will give his _____ hand, _____ the kingdom, or both to whoever makes the dragon stop.
10. The eldest son was described as _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11. The _____ son is so scared of the dragon that his knees are knocking together.

12. Both sons think the cobbler's advice is _____.

13. The first son tried to _____ the dragon by pretending to be a salesperson, but he ended up being swallowed.

14. The _____ son tired using surprise to defeat the dragon, but he also ended up being swallowed.

15. The _____ son is kind and modest but lacks confidence.

16. How does the third son slay the dragon?

_____

_____

17. Once the dragon is dead, the other two brothers crawl out of his stomach. After that, they...

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS