The Inspiration of Mr Budd

(pages 3-4)

Match the two halves of each sentence. Choose the correct letter from below.

1. To be granted the reward, Mr Budd just had to
2. He would tell the police he had
3. The moment he had his great inspiration,
4. As soon as his customer had left,
5. Once there, he was interviewed by an important-looking inspector,
6. At the docks, Strickland went on board the Miranda
7. The operator sent a message to the English police saying
8. Strickland had locked himself up in a cabin, refused to come out and
9. The Old Man knocked at the door of the cabin saying
10. Strickland opened the door a chink and slammed it,
11. As Strickland was brought out,
12. Mr Budd was given his reward and
13. Mr Budd was convinced that
14. However, he became popular among the upper-class ladies,

A Mr Budd felt free and confident.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B and rushed into the wireless operator's cabin.

C he was the hairdresser Strickland had sent for.

D his story was published in The Evening News.

E give information which would lead to Strickland's arrest.

F Mr Budd made his way to the government offices area.

G not before the Old Man pushed his foot in the opening.

H who wanted their hair dyed green,

I and requested a hairdresser was sent out to him.

J dyed the man's hair and moustache dark brown and shaved off his beard.

K who listened and made him repeat all the details about the suspect's appearance.

L everybody could see that every hair in him was green.

M he would surely be out of business.

N there was a man on board who answered the description.

LIVEWORKSHEETS