

EXERCISE 10

Think about what you've learnt from doing this unit.

Choose the words in the box to complete the information.

a speaker describing locations. a speaker giving directions. in fact questions.

in opinion questions. or describe positions of things on a plan or map.

the same order of the information in the recording.

to identify things you can already see. vocabulary for shapes and sizes.

your understanding of facts or opinions.

1. When you have a plan or map, use the time before you listen

2. A speaker may give directions to places

3. Turn right and go straight ahead are examples of

4. At the top and on the left are examples of _____
5. For labelling a plan or map, it is a good idea to learn

6. In an IELTS three-option multiple choice test, the options may not follow

7. IELTS three-option multiple choice questions may test

8. Words like view, attitude and according to are often used _____
9. Words like what time and the number of are often used
