

imagine = make an image or picture of something in your mind

Imagine the Willow Forest. Tell the ONE word you think best describes it: _____

Now write your answer in a sentence: In my opinion, the word that best describes the Willow Forest is _____. That is your topic sentence for the paragraph you will now write.

paragraph = 3 or more sentences about 1 idea

topic sentence = sentence that tells what you will talk or write about

Think about why you chose that word. Use your 5 senses.

What did Soli see, hear, taste, touch, and smell in the forest?

Complete the tree graphic organizer. →

You are ready to write your paragraph! It will have 6 sentences: your topic sentence and your 5 supporting sentences.

In my _____

Would you enjoy walking in Willow Forest? _____ Why? _____

Lucy remarks that once Soli "gave me my life back." What is she talking about? _____

Why do you think Lucy remembers this now? _____

Kheelen informs Lucy that the queen "wants the dark one. Your friend... The one in the shadows." Lucy is confused: the only darkness she sees in Soli is her hair. Why do you think they call Soli dark? Write 3 sentences.

foreshadowing = a clue to what might happen later in a story

Kheelen explains that fairies can't undo or take back a wish. Lucy argues that she and Soli should be able to take back their wishes because they aren't fairies. "Kheelen smiles" but says nothing. What do you think that foreshadows?

What is a simile? _____ Lucy states, "My prison ... smells like death." She is comparing _____ and _____. She means _____

Predict!

Check the predictions you made for this book. How many were correct? _____

Predict 2 events you think will happen in the next book. Give text evidence for your predictions.

evidence = information or clues that help prove something

- 1) I predict that _____ because _____.
- 2) I predict that _____ because _____.
