

FOUR TYPES OF SENTENCES

Declarative sentences tell something or make a statement. They use a period at the end of each sentence.

Interrogative sentences ask a question. They have a question mark at the end of each sentence.

Imperative sentences make a command or tell someone to do something. They also end with a period.

Exclamatory sentences express a feeling and use an exclamation point at the end of a sentence.

FOUR TYPES OF SENTENCES

I. John Glenn was one of our first astronauts

2. The ice cream man is here

3. Put this in the kitchen, please

4. This caramel apple tastes so good

5. Did you see the paintings at the museum

6. Wow, I am so excited

7. Sandra learned about dinosaurs

8. Write your name on the paper

9. Did your friend move

10. Harvey draws spaceships

II. Where are the modern paintings

12. What a lovely design

FOUR TYPES OF SENTENCES

- I. What time did you get to your house
2. Go home and take out the trash
3. The flower is ready to bloom
4. Did you ever call your friend back
5. I am so happy that you won the game
6. We will be having a party in October
7. You need to start your homework now
8. I can't believe what I got for Christmas
9. How much money did I make
10. She is going to have a baby
- II. Will you save me a seat
12. Find out where Africa is on the map

FOUR TYPES OF SENTENCES

I. Please listen when I talk to you

2. What is your name

3. Slow down, you are driving fast

4. White Lick is a great school

5. Yeah, my mom made us cake for dessert

6. Do you ever clean your room

7. The football team scored 28 points

8. You need to go wash up for dinner

9. Who is that person on the book

10. Do I get my allowance this week

II. I am going to Hawaii for the holidays

12. Man, did you see the grade I got

FOUR TYPES OF SENTENCES

- I. How many minutes do we have left
- II. I am shocked I got a bad grade on my test
- III. Stop giving me the directions
- IV. Our garden has corn in it
- V. The blue paint dripped on the floor
- VI. Ship these boxes by tomorrow
- VII. Why did you move my table
- VIII. Billy, hand me the blue folder
- IX. Where does Megan live
- X. Put your folder in your desk
- XI. What a beautiful painting that is
- XII. Mom poured the cereal in her bowl