LIVEWORKSHEETS

by Mrs. James Hall, 1840
The theatre was a large hall, with a stage at one end, and a gallery for the audience. The stage was raised, and the audience sat on benches. The architecture was simple, with a wooden floor and walls. The stage was decorated with a painted backdrop. The audience was dressed in 18th-century clothing. The theatre was a popular place for entertainment, and many famous actors performed there.
