Practice for Short Test

1. Complete the sentences using the words from box.

volcano – groundwater – ocean – river – glacier – epicenter – focus – plates – fault – ice caps – flood – landslide – drought – earthquake - spring

a. The crust and the top of the mantle are divided into very large pieces called _____.

b. _____ is a break or crack in rocks where Earth's crust move.

c. The place underground where the earthquake begins is called _____.

d. _____is any water that is underground.

e. _____is a large body of salty water.

f. _____is a large body of slowly moving ice.

g. _____is flowing fresh water moving downhill.

h. _____ are large areas of ice at the North and South Poles.

i. The point on Earth's surface that is directly above the focus is called _____.

j. _____is a place where groundwater comes to the surface of the land.

k. _____ is known as periods of unusually low rain or snowfall.

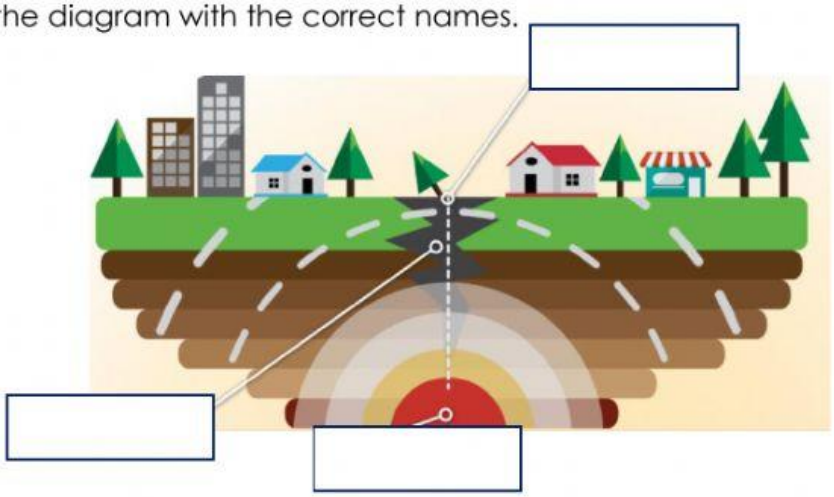

l. _____is the sudden movement that causes Earth's crust to shake.

m. _____ is the fast-moving water that covers an unexpected area.

n. The rapid downhill movement of a large amount of rock and soil is called _____.

o. _____is a landform that forms at an opening in Earth's crust where magma reaches the surface.

2. Complete the diagram with the correct names.

LIVEWORKSHEETS