1

Rick: Hello. I'm Rick. Um, I want to show you this watch. It has a special meaning for me. It's an expensive watch, but that's not why it's special to me. It's my grandfather's watch. It's my only possession of his. It's about 50 years old. It doesn't work, but I wear it sometimes.

2

Penny: My name is Penny. I have something special, too. Let me introduce you to Allie. Yes, it's a cat. Isn't Allie cute? Now don't laugh. It's from my grandfather. He likes to give me stuffed animals. I also have a bird, a horse, and a fish. I keep them on my desk at home. It makes me happy when I look at them.

3

Victor: Hello everyone. My name is Victor. I have something to show you, too. You all have one, I think. Any guesses? No? OK, it's my cell phone. I always have it in my pocket or my book bag. I think it's really cool because it does a lot of interesting things. And I have all my favorite photos on it. Do you want to see them? I have ... Oh! ... hello?

4

Emiko: Hi. I'm Emiko. I am wearing something right now with a special meaning. It's my baseball cap. Isn't it great? I go to a lot of baseball games, and I wear it every game. I love all sports, such as basketball, soccer, and tennis, but baseball is my favorite. But strangely enough—I don't have a favorite team.

5

Terry: I'm Terry, and I have something special from Italy. Here it is—it's a black wallet. Nice, huh? This wallet is a gift from my e-pal in Rome. His name is Stefano. Now, let's look inside. I have my student card, my bus pass, but um ... it doesn't have any money in it. Hmm, who wants to buy me lunch?
