Use of English

The World's Largest School

Read the text below, choose the correct answer (A, B, C, D)

City Montessori School in Lucknow, India, is the world's largest school. Nearly 50,000 pupils (1)_____ classes there every day, and the school (2) _____ nearly 4,000 staff, including teachers, cleaners, and electricians. The students learn traditional subjects such as geography and maths, and also discuss topics like world peace.

Dr Jagdish Gandhi set (3) _____ the school in 1959. It was hard work, and at first, he had to (4) _____ people to send their children to the school. But now, students come to him from all over the city.

At such a large school, pupils have to work hard to get (5)_____ by the teachers. One pupil says: 'If you're chosen for a school team, you can certainly feel (6) _____ of that.' Another pupil explains what he likes best: 'Being at the world's largest school means you can make lots of friends.'

1	A arrive	B attend	C go	D study
2	A employs	B receives	C gets	D owns
3	A in	B off	C up	D out
4	A explain	B hope	C persuade	D suggest
5	A thought	B looked	C noticed	D talked
6	A good	B proud	C positive	D happy

