

Mission 1 :

Use the words or phrases below to fill in the blanks:

thanks to / whereas / therefore even though / in so far as / moreover

1. Greg decided to work internationally , he left his former job.
2. her parents didn't agree, Jane was determined and decided to go on a gap year.
3. the internship she did in Leeds, she was recruited in the same company a year later.
4. He didn't have the opportunity to intern in a company he was too young.
5. During a job interview, you must talk about your work experience , don't forget to highlight your assets and skills.
6. Tom is quite outgoing and cooperative Katy's rather shy and independent.

Mission 2 :

Use the words or phrases below to fill in the blanks:

because of / otherwise / in case / while / if / consequently / indeed / unless / despite / so that / as / instead of

7. Studies show that a leader is elected democratically inside a team, it will affect his effectiveness. , democratically-elected leaders are more likely to have the confidence of their team members and they will be more effective.
8. He is not only interested in money, he would have left his job.
9. He had to stop working health problems.
10. I won't leave this company I find a more interesting job.
11. You should take your CV the HR director asks you a copy of it.
12. studying at university, he completed several internships.
13. He found a job easily the high unemployment rate.
14. He wants to study abroad he can improve his language skills.
15. he wanted to stand out from the crowd, he posted a video CV sending a CV.