

6 Look at the sentences. Are they plans or predictions?

- 1 Your horoscope says, "The color red will bring you good luck." prediction
- 2 I'm not going to go to school tomorrow—it's Saturday!
- 3 We're going to go to the basketball game this weekend. We've bought our tickets.
- 4 I don't think he'll pass his exams. He never does his homework.
- 5 My friend has problems with math, so I'm going to help him after school.
- 6 I'm sure we'll have fun at the party. Everyone will be there.

7 Complete the sentences. Use will and going to.

- 1 I / do my homework now. Maybe I / call my friends later.
I'm going to do my homework now.
Maybe I'll call my friends later.
- 2 We / play baseball on Saturday. We hope we / win.
- 3 He / get a bike for his birthday. Maybe it / be red.
- 4 Lola is sick. She / not go school today. Perhaps she / feel better tomorrow.
- 5 We / watch a DVD tonight. I hope it / be a scary movie.
- 6 I / not go to the charity event. Maybe people / not notice.