Listening 1:
Dollars, Deeds and Dreams- Vocab

1.	In a developing country, the general population tend to have a shorter life expectancy, less access to education, and low incomes compared to developed countries. ____	A	to spend less money than usual
2.	The university offers financial aid, such as loans, grants, and scholarships, to students from low-income families. ____	B	a poor nation with low economic and industrial growth
3.	In order to construct the new city subway, the government had to tear down buildings and expropriate land from many local residents. ____	C	costing more than it should
4.	Around the globe, there are still many impoverished people who do not have access to good jobs or education. ____	D	money is not freely available; it must be earned
5.	In keeping with current market trends, the company decided to branch out by introducing a new environmentally-friendly product line. ____	E	to take land or property away from its owner
6.	If no one is buying your product, then it is most probably overpriced. ____	F	to reduce the expenses of producing goods
7.	Many companies have managed to cut costs by moving their factories overseas where labor and operating expenses are much lower. ____	G	extremely poor
8.	In many cultures, it is customary for the bride's family to foot the bill for the wedding. ____	H	assistance in the form of money or loans
9.	You will really have to tighten your belt if you want to save up enough money to go on your dream vacation. ____	I	to do something that is different from your normal activities
10.	Whenever I asked my parents to give me some extra money, they always told me that I had to earn it because "money doesn't grow on trees." ____	J	to cover all of the costs; to pay for something that is (often) expensive

Property of McGraw Hill English

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS