

Unit 5 lesson 3 / Adverb clause

Reason	Purpose	Condition	Place
Because	(In order) to	If	Where
Because of	So (that)	Even if	Wherever since		In case	Everywhere
Now that		Only if unless

Because of must be followed by a noun (or noun phrase)

(In order) to must be followed with base form of the verb

So (that) include a modal

Use the present tense with an If-clause

1/ I go to Makkah in order to Umrah

- a) do b) does c) did d) doing

2/ she can't use that brand of make up she's allergic to it

- a) because b) whenever c) since d) unless

3/ you are in perfect health, you should have an annual checkup

- a) because b) whenever c) even if d) so

4/ I'll come to the picnic tomorrow I finish my paper tonight

- a) now that b) because of c) since d) only if

5/ I started exercising, I feel so much more energetic

- a) because b) whenever c) since d) unless

6/ Please take your cell phone you need it.

- a) even if b) in case c) unless d) because of 7/ I brought my computer I could show you my works.

- a) in order to b) so that c) only if d) because of 8/ If he to be accepted to a prestigious university, he will have to study hard.

- a) want b) wants c) wanted d) wanting

9/ I brought an umbrella it rains.

- a) so that b) in case c) because of d) now that

10/ I wore warm clothes I wouldn't be cold.

- a) so that b) in case c) because of d) now that