

1. Another way to say 'tell me', is

2. A normal way to apologise for being late, is

3. A way to ask if something has been done or said without you, is

4. A different way of saying 'I'm not sure', is

5. A formal way to introduce bad news to someone, is

6. When someone goes instead of another person to a meeting, they are

7. A formal way to say that you have plans that can't be changed, is I have a

8. That's a good point. But to be , I don't believe that changing the process will work.

9. A phrase used by someone to check if their understanding of what was said is right, is

10. A phrase used to ask if someone now understands what was said, is

11. A phrase that asks someone to repeat what they said, is

12. A polite phrase which asks someone for clarification on a point, is

1. He goes to the park twice a week.

2. I have seen the movie five times.

3. Kyiv is 500 kilometres from Lviv.

4. She bought a new iPad for her daughter yesterday.

-

5. There were more than 1,000 people at the club.

-

6. Kate had to wait an hour for the bus due to awful traffic.

-

7. Tom likes pizza, but the doctor warned him against it.

-

8. The BMW cost $100,000. Accordingly, only upper class can afford it

9. The course starts this week, but I'm unable to attend it because of the flu.
