Hello!

Sorry I haven't contacted you lately. I've been a bit busy working. Fortunately, I am on holidays now and I have time to catch up with some TV shows. What would you recommend? I would like to watch something that isn't violent or depressing. Tell me the name of the show, a short description of the characters and the story, and where I could see it. Thank you very much in advance!

I have to go now. Talk to you soon,

Paul
