

Word Families: The Internet

For each sentence, use a word that is related to one of the words on the list. In each case, you will need to change to a different part of speech.

For example: store → storage

1. My brother studies piano at the Kitchener _____ of Music.
2. I was _____ at Winners yesterday and I saw some great deals on winter coats.
3. I've just booked a flight _____ for the Caribbean!
4. Okay, kids. I need you to settle down and focus on your work. I'm hearing too much _____ right now.
5. My new neighbour seems to be very _____! Every time I see him, he stops to talk for at least ten minutes.
6. You must _____ all your work-related expenses and keep the receipts for reimbursement.
7. You gave us some great advice on effective online communication. Thanks for sharing your _____!
8. Conferences are a great opportunity for _____ with other professionals in your field.
9. _____, I don't drink wine with dinner, but this is a special occasion!
10. Unfortunately, some older buildings are not _____ to people using wheelchairs.

academic (adj., noun)

access (verb)

browser (noun)

chat (noun, verb)

destination (noun)

document (noun)

expert (noun)

network (noun)

ordinary (adj.)