

In the following questions each sentence has four underlined words or phrases in italics. The four underlined parts of the sentence are marked (1),(2),(3), and (4). Identify the one underlined word or phrase that must be changed in order for the sentence to be correct.

1. When the children came into (1) the classroom the teacher (2) asked them to sit down (3) and gave them (4) the task.
2. Julia is a small girl (1) with dark hair (2). She like to look (3) around and talk (4) to other children.
3. Whose book (1) is this? – I don't know. Maybe it's my sister's (2) book. – No, it doesn't look (3) like her. (4)
4. Look! Mary still is writing (1) something (2) in her copybook (3). Then she is going to (4) visit her grandmother.
5. There are (1) many citys (2) in Russia, where people live (3) like friends. We don't speak (4) about Moscow, of course.
6. We often come to (1) our good friends in summer (2). They live in a large country's house (3) not far from (4) Voskressensk.
7. Who is (1) absent today? – Max and Mary is absent (2) today. They are ill and couldn't come (3) to school. (4)
8. Where are (1) the money? – Why do you ask? (2) You know quite well that we have got no money (3) in the house (4) now.
9. They've got (1) two cows and we always buy (2) their milk. Their cows give (3) many milk (4) every day.
10. Is there (1) something (2) interesting in the newspaper? (3) – No, the newspaper is (4) not interesting at all.

