

Choose Present Perfect or Past Perfect

1. Before even the first negotiations were finished the delegations have begun/had begun to discuss future campaigns.
2. What is the most beautiful place you have ever visited/had ever visited?
3. When they left the railway station, they realised that they had got/have got on the wrong train.
4. I haven't turned/hadn't turned on my tablet today.
5. I went to the new sushi bar last night: they make the best sushi I have ever eaten/had ever eaten.
6. By the time he was 45, John has visited/had visited more than 25 different countries.
7. He was very cross when his new laptop stopped working. He has had/had had it for just three days!
8. I have tried/had tried a new recipe of a pumpkin pie.
9. This isn't the first time John has run/had run away from home.
10. I turned on the computer but before I have managed/had managed to log on there was a power cut.
11. She told me that she has made/had made a terrible mistake.
12. I told him what has happened/had happened.
13. He was actually an auditor and has come/had come to ensure that the firm was run efficiently.
14. I have just explained/had just explained my point.
15. Her English has improved/had improved a lot.
16. Before his wife has had/had had a chance to say anything John gave her a present.
17. When I arrived at the airport, John has already gone/had already gone home