Floods, High Winds Destroy Homes in Gunung Toar
Pekanbaru , Heavy overnight downpours caused the Kuantan River in Gunung Toar District to burst its bank on Monday, inundating more than 200 homes in Partapahan and Toar sub districts with up to 2 meters of water.
The same day, strong winds also hit the two sub districts at about 3:30 a.m., causing severe damage to 12 homes and moderate damage to other houses. Gunung Toar district head Ahyan Arvonis said no fatalities had been reported so far, following the floods and the winds that caused panic among local residents.
"We have yet to calculate the financial losses caused by the disaster, but at least Rp. 200 million in damages was incurred when the 24 ready-to-harvest fish farms belonging to residents were destroyed by the flood.," Ahyan told The Jakarta Post over the phone.
He said the Kuantan Singingi Administration had established emergency response posts in the affected area. The Riau provincial Administration had also sent emergency aid. "Additional aid can also be sent as soon as possible, anytime it is needed," Governor Rusli Zaenal said.
