

No 6. Choose the correct translation of the highlighted words

1) New synthetic drugs appearing on the market were easy to manufacture clandestinely and posed a challenge to established monitoring systems.

2) It would free both Serbia and the EU to move forward on Serbia's domestic reforms and international integration.

3) Inter-state combat may still occur where strategic front lines can be found, such as Israel's border with Syria, India's border with Pakistan, and the border dividing the two Koreas.

4) By 2020, for example, young Roma will make up one-third of the new entrants to the workforce in Hungary.

5) Industrialization spread even further – to Japan after the Meiji Restoration and deep into Russia, which was booming at the outset of World War I.

6) The plane went into the sea after the captain asked for an emergency landing at Palermo Punta Raisi airport.

7) But it turns out that there's an incredible opportunity to save lives through the early detection and prevention of cancer.

8) Meanwhile, we maintain our right to liberate or retrieve all of our occupied territories through all legitimate available means.

9) A republic is a nation whose head is not a king or a queen, but a president.

10) Today's Australian data was fairly disappointing; job vacancies rose at a slower

p a c e i n

F
e
b