

I Can See Clearly Now

Pain – Around - Obstacles - Rainbow – Blind

I can see clearly now the rain is gone

I can see all _____ in my way

Gone are the dark clouds that had me _____

It's gonna be a bright, bright sun shiny day

It's gonna be a bright, bright sun shiny day

I think I can make it now the _____ is gone

All of the bad feelings have disappeared

Here is that _____ I've been praying for

It's gonna be a bright (Bright), bright sun shiny day

Look all _____, there's nothing but blue skies

Look straight ahead, nothing but blue skies

I can see clearly now; the rain is gone

I can see all _____ in my way

Gone are the dark clouds that had me _____

John Lester Nash Jr. (August 19, 1940 – October 6, 2020) was an American singer-songwriter, best known in the United States for his 1972 hit "I Can See Clearly Now". Primarily a reggae and pop singer, he was one of the first non-Jamaican artists to record reggae music in Kingston.

Signing with ABC-Paramount, Nash made his major label debut in 1957 with the single "A Teenager Sings the Blues". He had his first chart hit in early 1958 with a cover of Doris Day's "A Very Special Love". Marketed as a rival to Johnny Mathis, Nash also enjoyed success as an actor early in his career, appearing in the screen version of playwright Louis S. Peterson's Take a Giant Step in 1959. Nash won a Silver Sail Award for his performance from the Locarno International Film Festival. Nash continued releasing singles on a variety of labels such as Groove, Chess, Argo, and Warner Bros.
