

Finishing Touch

"Look at all the things from the farmer's market," says Mom. "Can you unpack them, please?" Fred looks around the kitchen. There is a lot of food. Fred unpacks the things. "Now, I can make a salad for Mom," says Fred. He grabs a bowl. First, he puts in a box of tomatoes. Next, Fred adds a bag of peas and some spinach. He leaves out the pineapple. "This salad needs a finishing touch," says Fred. "I know! A cupcake!"

2 Read and choose.

- 1 Mom gets all the food from ...
☒ A the farmer's market.    B the grocery store.    C a kitchen.
- 2 What is the setting of this story?
 A the farmer's market    B the grocery store    C a kitchen
- 3 Fred is making the salad for ...
 A Mom.    B dinner.    C himself.
- 4 What goes into the salad first?
 A some spinach    B a bag of peas    C a box of tomatoes
- 5 What does Fred mean when he says "a finishing touch"?
 A The salad needs one more thing.    B He needs to run in a race.
 C He wants to touch the salad with his hands.
- 6 Which thing shouldn't be in the salad?
 A some spinach    B the cupcake    C some tomatoes

Score: / 10

3 What goes into Fred's salad? Read and choose Yes or No.

- |   |                    |   |
|---|--------------------|---|
| 1 | A bag of peas?     | <input checked="" type="radio"/> Yes / No |
| 2 | Some spinach?      | Yes / No                                  |
| 3 | A chicken?         | Yes / No                                  |
| 4 | A pineapple?       | Yes / No                                  |
| 5 | A cupcake?         | Yes / No                                  |
| 6 | A box of tomatoes? | Yes / No                                  |

Score: / 10