EASIER FOR ME EASIER FOR YOU

One day an Englishman looked into his cupboard and saw that he had no bread. So, he decided to go _____ (1) the baker's shop to buy _____ (2) bread.

When he came to the shop, the baker asked, "Do you _____ (3) one loaf or two loaves? White or brown bread?"

The man asked for a loaf of white bread. The baker took one from the _____ (4) and gave it to him. The man took it, held it in his hand for a moment, thought a _____ (5) and then said, "This loaf is not _____ (6) right weight, it is less than it should be."

"Oh, think nothing of it. It's not so important," said the baker. "It will be easier to carry, _____ (7) it?"

The man put the loaf of bread into his shopping-bag and said _____ (8). He counted the money and gave it to the baker.

When he was on his way to the door he heard the baker again.

"Just a minute!" he said to the man. "You haven't paid _____ (9). That's wrong. You have given me less money than you should."

"Oh, think nothing of it. It's not so important," said the man, "it will be easier to _____ (10), won't it?"

With these words the man went out and shut the door behind him.
