

Apple Milk Peda, a sweet dessert for Diwali.

Watch the video.

Connect the words with the correct image.

powdered milk

sugar

water

a measuring cup

a saucepan

clarified butter

Describe Manjaris' actions. Use the present continuous (be+Ving).

I _____ (watch) Manjaris' recipe. She _____ (put) sugar in a saucepan, then she _____ (pour) water. She _____ (stir) it vigorously. The mixture _____ (boil) for five minutes. She (add) powdered milk and clarified butter. She _____ (make) small balls and she (paint) with food colouring and she (decorate) the ball with a pistachio. I can do this, it is very easy.

Transform the sentences into the negative, affirmative or interrogative form. (Fais attention au temps utilisé dans la phrase de départ!)

She is making banana peda (negative).

Nohelly loves powdered milk (interrogative).

Lorenzo does not drink a lot of water (affirmative).

Loïce and Naël eat apples every day (negative).

Shaïna is not cooking cookies (affirmative).

Maelys and Nicolas are drawing rangolis (interrogative).

Sidjey makes clarified butter on Sundays (negative).

Lona and Ketsya are mixing the preparation (negative).

Complete the text. Use the present simple or the present continuous (be+Ving).

Hindus (not celebrate) Halloween, but they (party) for Diwali. Diwali (be) the festival of lights, the celebration of the triumph of good over evil. It (come) from the legend of the brave Rama and the beautiful and virtuous Sita. To remember their courage, Hindus, all over the world (light) oil lamps and (enjoy) good food and games with their families. Usually, they (not hurt) people, they (not fight). They always (wear) their best clothes. This year, Diwali (be) right now, on November 4th. People (draw) Rangolis for good luck. They (share) ladoos and peda and other sweets. They (drink) fruit juices. They (light) firecrackers and fireworks. In our class, we (think) that Diwali is a beautiful festival even if it (not be) from our religions or traditions.

