

LIFE 5 - UNIT 11A: PAST ABILITIES

Name: _____

Complete the sentences using can, could, or was able to. Use negative forms where necessary. Sometimes more than one form is possible.

- A: _____ you speak Dutch?
B: No, not really. I _____ speak it when I was a child, but then my family left the Netherlands and I lost touch with the language.
- A: Did you go to the concert last night?
B: No, I _____ get a ticket.
- A: Do you know if Sarah _____ get home alright last night?
B: Yes, she caught the last train with just minutes to spare!
- A: How's the snow?
B: Amazing! Another ten inches fell two nights ago. I _____ get to the office yesterday morning!
- A: I'm sorry, I _____ come to the meeting this afternoon. Something's come up.
B: OK. Don't worry. I'll take notes for you.

Choose the correct options.

- He loved the water and could / couldn't / wasn't able to swim when he was three.
- I'd love to can / could / be able to swim like him.
- She teaches French and she can't / could / is able to speak Chinese as well.
- He's lost his driver's license. He can't / couldn't / hasn't been able to drive for the last two years.
- We're a bit worried about Jake. He's six years old, but he still can / can't / couldn't read.
- You used to could / be able to / was able to see the sea from here, before they built that apartment building.
- He was heartbroken, but he can / could / couldn't understand why she'd left him.
- I'm having laser treatment on my eyes, so I'll can / could / be able to read without glasses.

LIFE 5 - UNIT 11B: FUTURE IN THE PAST

C

Match the two halves of the sentences.

1. I was going to take a day off from work,
2. Shaun was about to
3. The builders promised
4. I thought you would
5. She would have
6. You were supposed

- want to come to the restaurant with us.
- but I had too much to do at the office.
- they were going to finish by the end of the week.
- to catch the plane an hour ago!
- go home when his boss asked him to stay behind.
- invited you as well, but she didn't know your email.

D

Rewrite the first sentence using the word in orange.

1. I was going to call you, but you called me.

about:

I _____, but you called me.

2. She knew that you are always late and you were.

would:

She knew you _____, and you were.

3. Why weren't you here at nine?

supposed:

_____ here at nine!

4. I thought about asking you to marry me years ago, but I never thought you'd say "yes"!

would have:

I _____ you to marry me years ago, but I never thought you'd say "yes"!

5. I'd planned to go away for the weekend, but I didn't go.

going:

I _____, but I didn't go.

